DETAILED ACTION

Applicants Response After Allowance

1. The applicant remarks submitted on May 9, 2005, have been noted and made of record, however as detailed below, the examiner has stated the claimed language in which he/she has determined places the case in allowable form.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-4, 6-34, 36-41, and 43-56 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: This invention deals with a system for de-icing a cableway comprising a cableway configured for movement, and a power source electrically connected to the cableway for heating the cableway, wherein the power source provides power to the cableway in a range of about from 5 to 100 watts per meter of the cableway (claim 1). This invention also deals with a system for de-icing an elongated conductor, wherein the elongated conductor comprises a conductor span being separately connected to a power source wherein the system melts ice using power having voltage in the range of about 10-20 volts (claim 20). This invention also deals with a method for de-icing a cableway configured for movement, comprising a step of applying electric power to the cableway for heating the cableway, wherein applying electrical power comprises having a power source that provides power in a range of about from 5 to 100 watts per meter of the cableway (claim 36). This invention also deals with a method for de-icing an elongated conductor comprising the steps of separately connecting a conductor span with a power source and applying electrical power having a voltage in the range of 10-20 volts to the conductor span (claim 50). The above stated claim limitations, in combination with other claim limitations, is not taught or suggested by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
